The University of Maine School of Law Information Privacy Summer Institute will be held in Portsmouth, NH, Mondays through Fridays, from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., June 10 through June 19, 2013. The Certified Information Privacy Professional exam will be offered on Thursday, June 20, followed by a lobster bake with leading privacy professionals. Finally, a major privacy conference will be held on Friday, June 21, 2013. Tuition includes a lobster bake and admission to the conference. All events are in Portsmouth, NH.

Courses:
- Global Privacy Law (LAW 725) (2-3 credits, Prof. Omer Tene)
- Advanced Privacy in Practice (Law 786) (2-3 credits, Prof. Kris Kelin)

Admission to courses in the Summer Session is open to: (1) law students who have completed their first year and are in good standing at an ABA approved law school, and (2) special students not currently enrolled in an ABA approved law school program.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

All Applicants:
All applicants must complete the attached registration form, along with any other required documents. The Law School reserves the right to cancel any course because of insufficient enrollment.

Law Students at Other Law Schools:
Students currently enrolled at other ABA approved law schools must submit with their registration form a letter from the Dean of their law school certifying that the applicant is in good standing and has completed or is in the process of completing the first year of law study. Acceptance of a student in the process of completing the first year of law study is conditional on the successful completion of the first year.

Special Students:
Applicants not currently enrolled in an ABA approved law school program may enroll in Summer Session classes with the permission of the Associate Dean and instructor. Special students should submit a statement summarizing their background and setting forth their reasons for wishing to enroll in the Summer Session. Special students will be admitted only on a space available basis. Credits obtained by a special student in the Summer Session may not be applied toward a J.D. degree at this law school if the student becomes a candidate for that degree in the future.

CREDIT

Maine Law Students interested in early graduation should note that two summer sessions at the Law School, each of which includes the successful completion of at least five credit hours, can be combined to meet the residence requirement for one semester. Enrollment for six credit hours is necessary to be eligible for financial aid.

EXAMINATIONS

The final examination for Global Information Privacy will be Thursday, June 13. The final examination for Advanced Privacy in Practice will be Wednesday, June 19. Students writing a paper for an extra 1 credit in each class will submit them by June 12, 2013.
